Location

The fourth-largest city in North Rhine-Westphalia was not only the European Capital of Culture in 2010 but is also an important industrial location. Well-known companies, for example RWE, E.ON, Evonik or ThyssenKrupp, are based here. The famous Zollverein Coal Mine Industrial Complex in the Stoppenberg district, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is particularly popular with tourists. An active coal mine until 1986, this site is now an architectural and industrial monument. Art enthusiasts will find something for them at Museum Folkwang: you can enjoy around 600 paintings, 280 sculptures, numerous pieces of graphic art, photographs and handicrafts here. The focus is on modern and contemporary art. If you are simply looking for a green oasis for relaxation, Grugapark is the perfect spot for you. You can try to find a way out of the labyrinth here, enjoy looking at the waterlily pool, visit an event at the Musikpavillon or simply relax on the grass with a book. Enjoying all these attractions is easy and convenient from GHOTEL hotel & living Essen. Bus and rail connections close by ensure that you are mobile even without a car.
